

Schöneben AG allows free online access to their visual material to download images. Clicking on the phrase „Yes, I agree“, users accept the conditions detailed below.

Copyright and right of use

1. All images available are protected by copyright. Therefore the authors, whose names are indicated in the information that accompanies the images retain the right of use. In the event these images are used the respective source must be given as specified in article 3.
2. Free use of the image database and the visual material downloaded is only allowed for the following purposes:
  - for journalistic purposes or press campaigns that may be connected to Alto Adige and
  - for use by tour operators to promote skiing, cycling and hiking in the Belpiano-Malga San Valentino area.
3. Free use of images is limited to two years.

Prohibition of use

1. Any use beyond the limits set out in article 1 is forbidden, in particular for commercial purposes.
2. The interests of the authors must be taken into account at all times when using the visual material. In particular the images cannot be used in connection with pornographic, racist or extremist content that violates the principles of morality.
3. It is expressly forbidden to use the images in any context that jeopardizes the prestige and reputation of the Belpiano-Malga San Valentino skiing, cycling and hiking area.
4. Transferring material to third parties in particular through sale or duplication is forbidden. Schöneben AG reserves the right to investigate potential abuses or violations of these conditions of use.

Reference source

In the event images are used users must include a reference to the source (for example Schöneben AG /name of the photographer) on the image itself or the support used, as far as technically possible and according to the usual procedures for the respective use.

The visual material must not be altered, modified, adapted or manipulated in any way.

Exemption from claims by third parties and liability

Schöneben AG cannot be held responsible for failure to comply with obligations relating to the conditions of use indicated in articles 1 and 2. Users will be held solely accountable for any damages to third parties. Users indemnify and hold Schöneben AG harmless from any claims by third parties.